Tom will be remembered as a gentle, compassionate, creative soul who saw the world with the discerning eye of an artist, appreciative of the beauty in all things great and small. Tom was born to William and Florence Bailie in Los Angeles in 1951. He lived his formative years in Manhattan Beach, California. There he met his cherished, lifelong friends and fell in love with the ocean. An avid surfer, windsurfer, skier, and skydiver, Tom loved the outdoors and sharing the fun with close friends. Tom attended California State University at Long Beach and earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Ceramics in 1975 and attained a Teaching Credential in Art in 1977. Tom moved to Honolulu in 1984 and pursued his passion for art as a ceramicist with Tropical Clay, a commercial ceramics studio. He later worked as a freelance artist and designer. He was proud to exhibit his paintings in the Artists of Hawai`i 2009 show as well as Mixed Media Miniature XIV 2011 and the Association of Hawai`i Artists 42nd Annual Contemporary Show 2011. Among his greatest joys were his wife of 19 years, Christine Bailie, and his beautiful daughter Kaitlin. Together they built a happy life together, sharing their love of family, friends, nature, and travel. Daisy, his loyal dog and constant companion, completed the circle of love. Tom is survived by his wife Christine, daughter Kaitlin, and his immediate family in California – mother Florence Jones of Oceanside, brother Michael Bailie of Laguna Woods, and nephew Michael Bailie of West Hills. He is preceded in death by his father William and brother William G., and nephew Brendan Bailie. He also leaves behind many loving friends. BECKLEY, JAMES KAHEAKAMANAHOOKALEOOKALANI, was born at Mauna Ala or the Royal Mausoleum in Nuuanu on August 3, 1938. This was the Greatest Honor bestowed upon Kahea for these grounds are Sovereign and till today they still belong to the Kingdom of Hawaii. He was born under the Hawaiian Flag which is the only flag that is flown at Mauna Ala. He is the son of Benjamin Pitman Kameeiamoku Beckley, grandson of High Chiefess Maria Kahaawelani Beckley Kahea, great grandson of High Chiefess Kahinuokea-kua Hoolulu and great-great grandson of Captain George C. Beckley who was one of the designers of the Hawaiian Flag, who also became one of the Counselors in the Royal Court of King Kamehameha I. Kahea's grandmother High Chiefess Maria Beckley Kahea was appointed Kahu (or caretaker) of Mauna Ala by Queen Lili'uokalani in 1893. Her son Frederick Malulani Kahea succeeded her as Kahu of Mauna Ala in 1909 until 1946. While Fred was the Kahu at Mauna Ala, his younger brother Benjamin Pitman Kameeiamoku, (Kahea's father) and his family came to live with Fred. Here is where Kahea, his brother Edwin and their sister's son, Victor would be born. We believe the Kahea Beckley family is the only family that had given birth to children here at Mauna Ala. Knowing the importance of this, uncle Fred chose to groom Kahea to one day carry on the legacy of being a Kahu. Uncle Fred knew that Kahea would carry the mana'o of Mauna Ala with him so he taught Kahea everything he knew about Mauna Ala, hawaiian history, hawaiian culture, making of feather kahili's, the hula, chants, music, the making of hula implements, the nose flute, lei making and many, many other things. Thinking maybe one day when Kahea grew up he would come full circle and be able to be the Kahu of Mauna Ala. Kahea did come full circle but not in the way uncle Fred thought. Instead of being the Kahu of Mauna Ala he became the Kahu or caretaker of "Hulihe'e Palace" in Kailua, Kona under Curator, Lei Collins and later her daughter Fannie Ah Hoy. This was an Honor for Kahea because Hulihee Palace is where he got his CALLING to serve our Princess Abigail Kinoiki Kekaulike Kawananakoa and the Daughters of Hawaii. So Kahea did fulfill his CALLING of being a Kahu. The Beckley Family is also a part of the "Hawaiian Coat of Arms". The Royal Twins on the coat of Arms are Chiefs Kameeiamoku and Kamanawa. They are the uncles of King Kamehameha the Great and his main supporters. The twin on the left is Chief Kamanawa bearing a spear and the twin on the right is Chief Kameeiamoku bearing the kahili. High Chief Fred Kahapule Beckley who is the brother of Kahea's Grandmother Maria Kahaawelani Beckley is a direct descendant of Kameeiamoku. In Memory of "My Special Brother", Love your Big Sister, Frances. Visitation will be at Hawaiian Memorial Mortuary on April 1, 2013 at 6:00 – 9:00 pm and Tuesday April 2, 2013 at 9:00 – 10:30 am, Service at 10:30 – 11:30 am then Burial to follow at 12:00 noon, Valley of The Temples. BOPP, THOMAS THEODORE, 71, of Kailua passed away peacefully at home on June 15, 2013 after a brief illness, with loving family members around him. Born in Glendale, California on November 29, 1941, he was the son of the late Rev. Clarence and Mildred Bopp. He married Judith Creamer in 1962 and they had two sons, William and Christopher. Tom married a high school classmate, Georgia Kinney, in 1973. She had three children, Galatea, Jayne and Jon. Tom was Professor of Chemistry Emeritus and former Department Chairman at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa, where he was on the faculty since 1967. He was a graduate of Bishop (California) High School (1959), the California Institute of Technology (B.S., 1963), and Harvard University (Ph.D., 1967). At Caltech, Tom was a starter on the basketball teams which won 30% of their games (remarkable by modern Caltech standards), and sang in the Caltech Glee Club, which performed at the Squaw Valley (CA) Winter Olympics in 1960. At both Harvard and later Stanford he studied under Professor John D. Baldeschwieler, a pioneer in nuclear magnetic resonance, which was the subject of Tom's Ph.D. thesis. At the University of

Hawai'i at Manoa, Tom was a Professor of Chemistry, Chairman of the Department, and for several years was Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs. Teaching, however, was his primary professional passion. In 1986, Tom received the University of Hawai'i's newly-established award for Excellence in Teaching at the Manoa campus. His work was also recognized in student evaluations which were often right on target ("very excited about chemistry, which makes it all the more interesting" and "if you pay attention, he is actually pretty funny") as well as complimentary ("excellent teacher, nice, helpful, and he can sing"). And Tom did love to sing, not only on occasion in class, but for the O'ahu Choral Society, where he was an avid member and a section leader. Near the end of his life, when Tom was too ill to complete a choir rehearsal, he was remembered for "quietly exiting not focusing on himself careful not to disturb the preparation for the concert." While his beautiful singing could make you glad to be alive, Tom was equally willing to tell you precisely how you got here, as another passionate interest was genealogy. He was former President and an active member of the Honolulu County Genealogical Society and a pioneer member of the International Society of Genetic Genealogy. Although Tom loved his roles teaching and participating in his community, the role he esteemed most highly was as a loving family man-husband to his beloved wife and best friend of 40 years, Georgia Kinney Bopp, father and grandfather. His family is heart-broken by the loss of his loving and nurturing presence. Tom was preceded in death by his son, William. He is survived by his wife, Georgia; daughter Galatea DeLapp, daughter and son-in-law P. Jayne Bopp and Aaron Whyne, son and daughter-in-law Christopher and Tammy, and son Jon; brothers William and James, sisters Barbara Wille, Mary Harding, and Deborah; and grandchildren John DeLapp, Brendon DeLapp, Alexander Bopp-Whyne, and Nelson. We are thankful for the gift of Tom in our lives, for his kindness, generosity, grace, humility, humor and intellect. Memorial contributions may be sent to the O'ahu Choral Society, 4348 Wai'ala'e Ave. No. 214, Honolulu, HI 96816. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 7 July 2013]
