CABULONG, LINDA MARIE, 63, our beloved sister, passed away at home in Escondido on September 28, 2013. She lived courageously the last five and a half years with the reoccurrence of cancer. She was born on June 29, 1950 in Honolulu, Hawaii, the youngest of three girls. Linda was preceded in death by her parents, Roberto and Elizabeth; and her beloved dog, Kona Bear. She is survived by sisters, Roberta Cabulong, Rancho Bernardo, Barbara Bell, Escondido, husband Robert Bauer, North Carolina and brother-in-law, Donald Bell, Escondido. Linda graduated from the University of Hawaii. While at the UH, she spent one summer interning for then Lt. Gov. George Ariyoshi. In 1973, she attended the University of San Diego School of Law, graduating in 1976. After being admitted to the State Bar of California in December 1976, she became a Legal Aid Society staff attorney for four years until she went on to a private civil practice. Later, she worked in the Family Support of the Vista branch division as a deputy district attorney. In 1985, Linda became the first woman to fill the position of appointed traffic and small claims commissioner of the SD Municipal Court, eventually becoming a Juvenile Court judge. She also served on the SD Police Review Board. She lived primarily in California since 1972. Twice she relocated to Hawaii for a time, also practicing law here. In Honolulu, she was a staff attorney for then Mayor Frank Fasi. She had, in recent years resided in the Kona and Keauhou area on the Big Island. In Kona, she volunteered her time with the West Mediation Center of the Hawaii Bar Association. Linda enjoyed the people she met in the law profession. She gave her energy and time with her law expertise to help people. This was her gift. Her passion was buying and renovating homes with her husband, traveling the world, gardening and golfing. She was a fun loving, well rounded person. She returned to California in 2008 to be with family. We love and miss her dearly. We are forever grateful that she was our sister. Her family will scatter her ashes in Hawaii. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 22 December 2013]

CAGLE, CHARLES CHUCK ARTHUR, (October 26, 1930 – April 29, 2013) Charles Arthur Cagle, "Chuck" of Kahuku, Oahu, Hawaii, passed away peacefully at home on Monday, April 29, 2013, at 3:58 pm. He was surrounded by his wife, sons, grandchildren, and friends after a long illness. Chuck was born on October 26, 1930 on the grounds of his family's cotton farm in Frost, Texas to father James A. Cagle, a local carpenter, and mother Lera Ramage Cagle, a homemaker. Known to most as "Chuck," he took charge of the family homestead and farm at a young age after his older brothers enlisted in the United States Armed Forces to serve in World War II. Shortly after the war, at the young age of 17, Chuck enlisted in the United States Army on October 1, 1948. He served in the Army during the Korean Conflict, completing two tours of service there. Additionally, Chuck served an extended tour in Germany as a Brigade Air Control Chief, and at Fort Huachuca, Arizona, where he and five other specially selected non-commissioned officers helped create what was to become one of the U.S. Army's Vietnam-era Jungle Warfare Training Schools. Chuck retired from the Army as a Sergeant First Class, after serving faithfully and honorably for 22 years. Upon retirement, he worked in various positions until finally ending up at A-Tri-K Ranch, owned by Princess Abigail Kekaulike Kawanakoa, where he remained until his death. Chuck was preceded in death by sons Charles Raymond Cagle of California, Vance Allen Cagle of Pupukeya, Hawaii, and daughter Susan Leilani Cagle of South Bridge, Massachusetts. Chuck is survived by his wife of 58 years, Kathleen "Penny" Cagle, sons James A. Cagle of Kahuku, Hawaii, Charles A. Cagle of Arizona, Dean A. Cagle of San Antonio, Texas, David Cagle (Connie) of Spanaway, Washington, and hanai daughter Nita Hacucuy of Haleiwa, Hawaii. He has 12 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren. His brother Jerry A. Cagle and sisters Sarah Ann North and Mary Frances Cagle reside in Texas with numerous nieces and nephews. CANNON, CHARLA GATES, died peacefully at her home in Denver, CO on June 6, 2013 at the age of 93. Born in Denver on October 19, 1919, “Sparkie” (as she was known to her friends and family) was the daughter of Charles C. Gates, founder of the Gates Rubber Company and Denver native Hazel Rhoads Gates. She attended grammar and high school at Graland Country Day, Kent School for Girls in Colorado and Punahou School in Honolulu. Charla attended Bennett College in Millbrook, NY. Sparkie was an outdoor enthusiast who loved to travel and tend to her gardens in Denver and Evergreen. The Gates Family spent many years in Honolulu, and it was there that Sparkie acquired a deep love for the beauty of the islands’ flowers and appreciation for Asian art and culture. Along with a number of her siblings in the Gates family who became pilots, Sparkie obtained her pilot license and helicopter rating. She was the 110th woman helicopter pilot in the nation and a member of the Whirly-Girls, an organization for female pilots that was formed in 1955. Sparkie had the honor of flying Arnold Palmer, the winner of the U.S. Open at Cherry Hills, from Stapleton Airport to PGA headquarters in Cherry Creek. Sparkie married Brown Woodburn Cannon in 1941 and the two enjoyed a wonderful life that included raising their three sons. Sparkie had a variety of business interests including the first spa in Denver, aviation and agricultural pursuits in Wyoming, and gold mining. She was a supporter of the Denver Botanic Gardens, served as the first decorations chairwoman for the Denver Debutante Ball, and participated in a number of Denver’s notable civic organizations. The role she esteemed most, however, was that of wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Sparkie Cannon is survived by her sister LeBurta Gates Atherton of Honolulu, HI, sons Brown Woodburn Cannon, Charles Gates Cannon and Reynolds Gates Cannon, daughter-in-laws Mardi Cannon and Maureen Cannon, five granddaughters, two grandsons, a step-granddaughter, a step-grandson, four great-granddaughters and three great-grandsons. A Private Memorial Service is planned by her family. In lieu of flowers, the family would like contributions be given in the memory of Charla Gates Cannon to any of the following charities: The Denver Botanic Gardens; Colorado Talking Book Library; The Denver Museum of Nature and Science; and The Kempe Foundation for the Prevention and Treatment of Child Abuse.

CANNON, GLENN, Charismatic professor, inspiring director, actor extraordinaire. surrounded by friends and family, Glenn Cannon took his final curtain call on April 20, 2013. Glenn's favorite song was Judy Garland's "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." This song brought a smile to his face and tears to all who serenaded him during his final days. Despite successes as a Broadway and Hollywood actor, Glenn's passion was "giving to others" as exemplified through his 45 years of teaching theatre at the University of Hawaii and directing 163 plays at Kennedy and other local community theatre venues. He was heavily involved in both until the end of his life. Glenn portrayed many memorable characters in his illustrious career including recurring roles as District Attorney John Manicote on the original Hawaii Five-0 and Dr. Ibold on Magnum PI. However, by far, his most cherished roles were that of wise mentor, loyal friend, and loving husband, father, uncle, and most recently grandfather. Glenn your legacy lives on in all the people you touched. For the rest of our lives, whenever we see a rainbow shining across the Hawaiian skies, we know in our hearts, somewhere Glenn Cannon is sitting in his directors chair and smiling down on us all. With much love and Aloha. Glenn is survived by his wife Sam Sil Cannon, son Caleb Cannon and fiancé Jacelyn Wong, granddaughter Kassidy Wong-Cannon, sisters- and brother-in-laws Sam Soo Yoon and Chung Hee Lee and Sam and Daryl Fujii, nephews Jae Sung Lee, Dylan Fujii, and Cody Fujii, and mother-in-law You Soon Chon. A celebration of Glenn's life will be hosted at his second home, Kennedy Theatre, on Saturday, May 25, 2013 at 3 pm. In lieu of gifts or flowers, donations may be made in memory of Glenn Cannon to support the students of the UH Theatre and Dance Program. Please make checks out to "UH Foundation" with notation of 'for Glenn Cannon Fund' and mail to University of Hawai'i Foundation, P.O. Box 11270, Honolulu, HI 96828-0270. Mahalo. Capili Sr., Claro Reyes, 90, of Kahului, passed away on Friday, April 12, 2013. He died in the comfort of his home, surrounded by his family, and with the care of Hospice. Claro was born on August 12, 1922 to Higinio and Petra (Velez) Capili in Mapa, Manila, Philippines. On his 19th birthday he joined the Merchant Marines and departed for the United States. In 1942 he enlisted with the United States Army and served 3.5 years in active duty during War World II. He continued military service for many years through the Hawaii National Guard and Army Reserves. He rose to the rank of Major and officially retired from the U.S. Armed Forces in August 1982. Claro had humble beginnings. He started work in the plantation and then worked for an auto parts company. He always did his best to improve himself and met every challenge with gusto. Claro later worked 15 years as the Maui Branch Manager for Love's Bakery and 10 years for the County of Maui. At the County he served as Deputy Director of Public Works, Deputy Managing Director, and then Managing Director under former Mayor Elmer Cravalho. In July of 1979, he stepped up to serve as acting Mayor of Maui from July thru November. He then served as Senior Executive Assistant under Mayor Hannibal Tavares and retired in the mid 1980's. Claro was an active citizen. His community involvement includes service as a member in the Maui County Police Commission (1965-68), 2 terms as President for the Maui Young Democrats, Member of Board of Efficiency and Economy (County of Maui), Member of Maui Memorial Hospital Managing Committee (State of Hawaii), President of the Christ the King Parents-Teachers Guild, President of the Kahului Fil Catholic Club (Christ the King Church), President of the Maui Filipino Catholic Council, President of the Diocesan Congress of Filipino Catholic Clubs, Secretary of the Maui Junior Chamber of Commerce, President of the Polo Ballroom Club, President of the Maui Filipino Community Council, and Vice President of the United Filipino Council (State of Hawaii). Like most military men Claro was neat, organized, and punctual, but he also had a lighter side. He was a fun and humorous man who had a great love for life. He loved to tell stories, make people laugh, and was asked to host many parties and events throughout the years. He loved to travel (North America, Europe, & Asia) and had a great interest in diverse foods, lifestyles, and cultures. Claro loved to sing and dance and he loved to be outdoors. In his retirement years Claro enjoyed many hours tending to his well cultivated gardens. Claro is survived by his loving wife of 67 years, Maxima Balmores Capili, sons Claro R. (Laura Boskoff) Capili, Jr., James B. (Diana Adolphson) Capili; daughter, Patricia Ann B. Capili, The Pedro Balmores family of Oahu, Waimea, and Las Vegas, hanai-son Steven (Thelma) Suyat, hanai daughter, Janice Kikukawa, the Raymondo Aguinaldo family of Maui and Honolulu; hanai grandchildren, Roselani (Helaman) Ainohi, Stacy (Justin) Woodson, Adam

(Que-Chau) Suyat, Sachi (Adam) Evert, Joshua Suyat, 16 hanai-great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. CASSIDY, REV. BERNARD F., 96, died September 15 in Regis Infirmary, Sacred Heart Jesuit Center, Los Gatos. A Jesuit since 1954, he recently celebrated his 50th anniversary of priestly ordination. Bernie was born in Los Angeles in 1917 and was a 1940 graduate of Santa Clara University, where he majored in electrical engineering. From 1940 until 1953 he worked as a civilian electrical engineer for the Army and Air Force, involved in the design, installation, repair and instruction in the use of electrical and electronic systems at military bases in Hawaii and Sandia, New Mexico. After his ordination to the priesthood in 1963, he taught theology and served as student chaplain at Loyola Marymount University, Los Angeles (1965-67), and in parish ministry at Blessed Sacrament Church, Hollywood, Christ the King Church, San Diego (1968-78) and Holy Family Church, San Jose (1979-82). In 1982 he returned to Hawaii and served as Director of Spiritual Services at St. Francis Medical Center, Honolulu, retiring in 1992. He then became a hospice chaplain until 2005, when he retired to Sacred Heart Jesuit Center. During his four decades of ministry Bernie touched the lives of countless students, parishioners and hospital patients. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:00 a.m. Thursday, September 19, 2013, Sacred Heart Jesuit Center, 300 College Avenue, Los Gatos 95030 with committal immediately following at Santa Clara Mission Cemetery, 490 Lincoln Street, Santa Clara 95050. Donations in Father Cassidy's memory may be made to the California Province of the Society of Jesus, P.O. Box 68, Los Gatos, CA 95031 or to a charity of your choice. CHAPMAN, ANN T., passed away Thursday, Jan. 3, 2013 in Boulder. She was 101. Ann didn’t do anything halfway. When she moved with her husband and four children to Hawaii, she dived right into the culture. She took hula classes, began cooking local food and spent Sundays cooking Chinese food with a friend. She always rolled with the punches, got up and said, “What’s next?” She loved golf and was an avid bridge player. But mostly she embraced her family and Hawaii. She was a member of the Outrigger Canoe Club, the Oahu Country Club and the Assistance Guild. She worked occasionally with her husband, Thomas J. Chapman, in car sales. But her impact went far beyond that. She volunteered at the Assistance Guild Thrift Shop and sewed costumes in the Green Room for performances at Punahou School in Honolulu. Ann was born June 11, 1911 to Matthew Troya and Mary Sterk in San Francisco. She attended St. Charles Elementary School and graduated from Commerce High School. She married Thomas on Aug. 11, 1942. She moved to the Boulder area 15 years ago after 41 years in Honolulu. She is survived by a son, Buster T. Chapman of Las Vegas, Nev.; four daughters, Leann McIver of Belmont, Calif., Barbara Norfleet of Honolulu, Sandie Tracy of Glenwood Springs, Colo., and Sharie Schouweiler of Boulder; step-daughter Sammi Coe-Smith of Brinnon, Wash.; 12 grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1992. No services will be held, according to her wishes. A family burial will take place at Diamond Head Memorial Park in Honolulu. Memorial contributions may be made to Family Hospice of Boulder, 1730 30th St., Suite 308, Boulder, CO 80301. Please share thoughts, memories and condolences at legacy.com/obituaries/dailycamera. CHU, GEORGE HOW TIM, president and owner of GBC Incorporated, died peacefully on July 17, 2013. George was born on April 8, 1922 to Kong and Ellen Chu in Kapaia, Kauai. Unfortunately, Kong Chu died just before George was born. Ellen remarried and relocated to the Liliha area on Oahu. When George was 14, his mother Ellen passed away, leaving George, his stepfather, and his seven siblings. George graduated from St. Louis High School and worked briefly for the state government. He joined the army and was stationed at Fort Shafter. In 1946, George married Bertha Mun and they had one daughter and three sons. George joined Hopaco in 1947 as an account clerk. During his 17-year tenure, he was accounting/credit manager and operations manager. In 1964, he left Hopaco to start his own accounting firm, but when Hopaco was acquired by Boise-Cascade two years later, he was offered the comptroller position to return to Hopaco, and was later promoted to general manager. In 1974, George left Hopaco to found his own company, GBC Inc. Initially, GBC was a Hawaiian souvenirs wholesaler. Ultimately, George sold the souvenir business to focus on the distribution and retailing of packaging materials. With his wife Bertha at his side and their three sons, the family business grew and prospered, and in 1990, George won the distinguished national award as Hawaii's Small Business Person of the Year. George was active in Junior Achievement, Rotary Club, and the Chamber of Commerce but much of his time, effort, and passion was in support of Hawaii's Chinese Chamber of Commerce. In 1982, George became president of the Chinese Chamber. Over the years, George was extremely active and helped the Chamber to bring 12 city / province China Trade Exhibitions to Hawaii, and managed the American Management Training Program to introduce American management practices to business people from China. George is survived by his loving wife Bertha, his son, Sanford and daughter-in-law Laureen, grandson Michael and his wife Lea, son Lester and daughter-in-law Roanne, grandchildren Melissa and Jason, son Walton and daughter-in-law Nannette, grandchildren Steven and Wendy, and sister Elsie Mau. Their daughter, Georgiana passed away in 1997. A celebration of his life will be held at the Diamond Head Memorial Park on Monday, July 29. Visitation starts at 4:30 p.m. with Services at 5:30 p.m. Donations to Rehabilitation Hospital of the Pacific are suggested. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 24 July 2013]

COOPER, DENNIS WARREN, 70, died October 29, 2013 after a 2 year battle with Leukemia. Dennis was born on October 16, 1943 in LaPeer, Michigan and lived in a number of other states, including Texas, growing up. He was a celebrated high school athlete at Ionia High School in Ionia Michigan – Quarterbacking the football team, as well as playing basketball and golf. Dennis graduated valedictorian of his class and went on to attend the University of Michigan and married his high-school sweetheart, Shari Geisel Cooper. Although the marriage ended, Dennis and Shari were blessed with a daughter, Teresa Lee Cooper Walden – his only child and one of his proudest joys in life. Dennis transferred his studies to the University of Texas in 1966, where he received a B.S. in mathematics and a M.B.A in finance, and also completed all of his course work for a Ph.D. Following his studies, Dennis remained in Austin, Texas and had a successful career in real estate and finance, including serving as CFO of Schlotzsky's Inc. Dennis enjoyed eating at the original Schlotzsky's on South Congress Avenue prior to its transformation into a national retail food chain. In 1991, Dennis went to run a marathon in Honolulu, HI and decided to move there for a Hawaiian adventure that lasted 16 years. Dennis loved his time in Hawaii and lived just blocks away from one of the most beautiful beaches in the world in Kailua, HI, and the Kalapawai Market. Dennis' passion was scuba diving and he served as a Dive Master for locals and tourists with over 500 dives. He also fulfilled a dream of traveling to and diving at the Fuji Islands. Dennis did have a "day job" in Hawaii as a Mortgage Broker for Mid-Pacific Mortgage. Through his work, he made several long-time friends, including local realtors, who were dear to him. During his time in Hawaii, Dennis enjoyed serving as host to his daughter and siblings and their families who traveled to see the beautiful islands. Dennis' other interests and hobbies included watching Texas and UofH football and men's basketball, and Texas and UofH women's volleyball and basketball. He also enjoyed jogging, reading, music and sports cars. His first car was a Metropolitan and from there he went on to own a Jaguar, Camaro, two Corvettes, a Mazda Miata, and most recently a Mini-Cooper convertible. Dennis enjoyed being a grandfather to his two grandsons, Ryan Tucker Walden and Michael Cooper Walden. He was known as "Grandpa Coop" to them and traveled numerous times from Hawaii to spend time playing with them. Dennis retired in Austin, Texas in 2007 in order to be closer to his daughter and grandsons and enjoyed many hours playing and swimming with them and attending their sports and band activities. His other 2 loves were his adopted cats, Wookie and Henry. Dennis is survived by his daughter and grandsons, sister Nancy Cooper Duggan, brother Larry George Cooper and his wife Judy Cooper, brother Douglas Arthur Cooper and his wife Linda Cooper, and numerous nieces and nephews. He was pre-deceased in death by his father, Randall Eugene Cooper, his mother, Kella Eddy Cooper, his brother, Randall Eugene Cooper, Jr, and his nephew Craig Wilson Cooper. A memorial service honoring Dennis will be held Sunday, November 3, 2013 at 1:00 p.m. at Cook-Walden Chapel of the Hills Funeral Home, 9700 Anderson Mill Rd. Austin, Texas 78750. In lieu of flowers, Dennis requested that contributions be made to Austin Pets Alive! www.austinpetsalive.org or a shelter of your choice that does not euthanize animals.
