FAGAN, WILLIAM THOMAS (TOM) JUNE, 5, 1945 – SEPTEMBER 14, 2013 William Thomas “Tom” Fagan died in Del Mar, California on September 14. He was 68. Tom was born in Vermillion, Alberta, the oldest of the seven Fagan children. He was the son of Tom and Betty Fagan of East Lansing, Michigan. Tom was pre-deceased by his parents and his wife of 42 years Marilyn (Wierman) Fagan. He is survived by his daughter Elizabeth Hughes (Mike), of Scottsdale, Arizona, and sons Brian (Shiraz), of Del Mar, California, and Tim (Yvonne), of Toluca Lake, California, and three grandsons Colin and Brady Fagan and Joe Hughes. He leaves behind his siblings Ann, Mary Ellen, Jim, Paul, John and Mike. An accomplished athlete, Tom played football, basketball and baseball at East Lansing High School for legendary coaches, Roy Kramer & Gus Ganakas. He was a graduate of Dartmouth College (1967) where he played football and rugby and was a member of the Phi Delta Alpha fraternity. He earned his law degree at the University of Michigan (1972) where he was also on the rugby team. While he was in the Army, he was assigned to the Defense Language Institute in Monterey, California, where he learned to speak Russian. Tom was a partner in Widett, Widett, Slater & Goldman in Boston. While practicing in Boston, he was an Advisor to Harvard’s Trial Advocacy Workshop. In 1984 he moved his family to Honolulu and joined O’Connor Playdon & Guben, one of Hawaii’s oldest law firms. He was an Adjunct Professor of Political Science at Hawaii Pacific University and a member of HPU’s International Studies Advisory Council. His Hawaii Pacific University students honored him last year: “You guided us on our journey and pointed us in the right direction. We laughed, we loved, we cried. Best of all we learned.” Tom served as President of the Dartmouth Club of Hawaii and was a member of the Exchange Club of Bishop Street. Tom was a very competitive athlete. He loved music, regularly attending live music performances. Most remember him as a raconteur with a quick wit, never one to mince words or shy away from a debate. Tom was an excellent lawyer, a revered academician and a scholar. But first and foremost, he was a loving and proud husband and father and a big brother in the truest sense. He was a great and loyal friend and a man who was loved and respected by so many. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that any charitable contributions be made in Tom’s honor to the Boo Boo Memorial Scholarship Fund at P.O. Box 308, East Lansing, MI 48826. Memorial celebrations are being planned for Honolulu this fall and in Charlevoix, Michigan next August. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 29 September 2013]

FRANK, FRANCINE CLAUDELLE, died on February 19th, 2013 in the comfort of her home, joining the light that shines down on us with everlasting love, friendship, compassion, peace and a smile. She was born on December 4th, 1963 in Honolulu, HI to Kiana Ka‘ahanui and Franklin Phillips and is the oldest of seven siblings. She graduated from Kaiser High School in 1981. Fran spent her life caring for her kids, her family, friends and her community. She was an active member of the Kamehameha ohana and was a loved and valued employee. She lived a pono life and was the embodiment of aloha, hope and inspiration. After an epic battle with cancer she passed in peace surrounded by the loves of her life: her babies Kiana Frank (KS ‘04), Kainoa Frank (KS ‘08), Keoni and Kalae Frank (KS ‘11), and her husband Stephen Frank (KS ‘80). A celebration of Francine’s life will be held on Sunday March 10th, at 1:00pm at Kamehameha Schools Chapel (visitation from 12:00pm). Fran requested aloha attire (she said no black unless that’s all you own). In lieu of cut flowers, the family requests live potted plants of Fran’s favorites (orchid, anthurium, ginger, ti leaf, pakalana, etc) to plant in her family garden in her honor. FREEMAN, DOREEN SHEILA (BROWN), born on February 28, 1923, in Liverpool, England. She subsequently lived in Ohio, USA, until 1933 when she and her parents and her brother, Freddie, returned to England. Doreen attended a convent in London, followed by boarding schools in Cheshire and Sussex. After a short stint as a flight attendant with an emerging new airline, at the age of 18, Doreen became a journalist and reporter for the London paper, "The Daily Sketch." During World War II, she served in the Women's Auxiliary Air Force (WAAF) where she served for three years. In late 1947, Doreen met Houghton "Buck" Freeman and they were married shortly thereafter on April 21, 1948, at the Savoy Chapel in London. They left the next day for Shanghai, China, where their first child, Linda, was born in September, 1949. Evacuated two weeks later, the family moved to Japan which they called their home for 21 years. It was during that time that their son, Graeme, was born in 1955. Doreen and Buck moved to New York City where they lived from 1970 to 1990, and after an additional two years in Japan, they retired to Stowe, Vermont, where they established the Freeman Foundation in 1993. The Honolulu, Hawaii, office opened in 2000. Doreen served as a trustee and was actively involved with the Foundation until her death on July 12th. Doreen leaves behind her daughter, Linda, and son-in-law Don Post, grandchildren Tyler and wife Stacie, Alexi, and Graham, all of Stowe, Vermont; her son, Graeme, and wife Nancy Freeman, grandsons Alec and Colin of Honolulu, Hawaii; and two stepgrandsons, David and Scott DeCristo. She also leaves her brother, Frederick Brown, and wife, Sandra, godson/nephew, Toby Brown, stepnephew Sebastian Brown, of England and nephew, Kelvin Carlyle, of Bali. After 62 years of marriage, her husband, Buck, predeceased her in 2010. A private family service will be held in Vermont. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations to be made to either the American Red Cross, Hawaii State Chapter, 4155 Diamond Head Rd., Honolulu, Hawaii 96816; or Meals on Wheels of Lamoille County, Vermont, 24 Upper Main St., Morrisville, Vermont 05661. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 27 July 2013]
