NAGAMINE, DANIEL MASASHIGE, 1941-2013 passed away on October 7, 2013, at home after a long illness. He was 72 years old and is survived by his wife Maxine, sons David Daniel (Rosanne) and Dr. John Michael (Cindy), daughter Christine Kay (Sean Aydlott) and grandsons Jace Masaji and Cody Koshin Nagamine. He is also survived by a brother Roy Nagamine and three sisters: May Tamashiro, Jean Shimabukuro, Sandra Chong and numerous nieces and nephews. Sister Winifred Kataoka preceded him in death. He was born to Steven Shoshin and Thelma Tamayo (Akamine) Nagamine on March 5, 1941 in Honolulu. He graduated from McKinley High school in 1960, received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting in 1965, and was licensed as a Certified Public Accountant in 1968. After working for several Hawaii accounting firms, he devoted the rest of his professional career expanding Flamingo Enterprises, which included Cafi; ½ Flamingo, Flamingo Ala Moana, Kapiolani, Chuckwagon, Royal Lanai, Coffee Shop, Arthur's, Pearl City, Waipahu, Windward, and the Heritage Ballroom at the Japanese Cultural Center. He also served on the Board of Directors at Central Pacific Bank and was so proud when CPB was listed on the New York Stock Exchange in 2002. As a Director on the Hawaii Dental Association Board, he worked tirelessly to ensure sound practices and policies and received acknowledgement in 1998 for his outstanding contributions and devoted leadership. Dan spent his non-working hours traveling with his family. An annual ski trip during the Christmas holidays was the family's present to each other, beginning in 1979 and ending in 1989 as the children left for college. Travel continued with Maxine throughout the United States and to faraway places such as Europe, Mexico, Thailand, Japan, China, Australia and New Zealand. In more recent years, daughter Christine joined trips to Scandinavia/Russia and several U.S. destinations. In addition to traveling, he helped to organize his high school reunions and always looked forward to seeing his classmates at the events. Throughout his life, he especially enjoyed renovation projects at work and home, paying attention to every detail to ensure professional results. A celebration of Dan's life will be held on Friday, October 25, 2013 at the Honolulu Country Club (Salt Lake). Visitation will be held between 10:30-11:30 with the program at 11:30. NAKAKURA, WILFRED “WILLIE” SATORU, passed peacefully on July 9, 2013 at Kapuna Wai Ola. He was born on July 27, 1935 in Honolulu. Son of the late Lincoln and Thelma Nakakura, Willie grew up in the Kalihi area and attended Saint Louis School. Upon graduation, Willie attended the University of Portland from 1953 to 1955 and returned home to finish his schooling at the University of Hawaii, where he earned a bachelor’s degree in Recreation in 1959. Willie was the president of Nakakura Construction Co., LTD from 1965 to 1979. In 1979, Nakakura Construction merged with Japan-based company Tokyu Construction to form Pan-Pacific Construction Inc., where he filled the president’s role until 1993. During his life, Willie served on many boards and committees, including the following: Navy League (member), Nuuanu YMCA, Aloha Athletic Club (member), Moanalua Golf Club (president and director), Pacific Palisades Community Association (member), General Contractors Association of Hawaii (president and director), Construction Industry Legislative Organization (chairman and legislative chairman), Hawaii State Contractors Council (member), Association of State Licensing Agencies (national director), Contractor’s License Board (member), Easter Seals VIP Telethon/Taste of Honolulu, Contractor’s License Board (vice president), POI Coalition – People Oppose Initiative (co-chair), Saint Louis School Education Foundation (board of director) and Sand Island Business Association (member). In addition, Willie served on the Board of Directors for the Hawaii State Sheriff Association for 25 years. Among his many leisure interests, sports topped the list, specifically golf. Willie was a member of Mid-Pacific CC and Moanalua GC. He also played baseball and softball games in which he was known for his nasty change-up. Can’t forget Las Vegas! Willie and May frequented “the 9th island” regularly. During the last decade, lots of family fun and memories were created, especially the ones his sons, daughter-in-laws and grandkids took him on. Indeed, Willie lived a good life! Willie is survived by his wife, May Asayo Nakakura; sons Derek (Bo) and wife Terry, Dean and wife Cheryl, and Darin and wife Kimberly; brother Stanley Nakakura, sister-in-law Jean, sister Molly Morita, brother-in-law
