TAJIRI, RAYMOND YOSHITERU, 87, of Honolulu passed away peacefully at home on August 18, 2013. He was born on October 23, 1925 in Honolulu. He was predeceased by his wife, Winifred Emiko Tajiri who passed away on October 13, 2010. Survived by sons: Andrew (Donna Mae), Brian (Karen), Keith (Annette), and Kenny (Darlene); daughter: Claudia (Alan) Morikawa; grandchildren: Jamie (Brandon), Jill (Elbe), Baron, Rex, Tammy, Kristi (Keola), Justin, Joshua, Ashleey and Jeremy; great grandchildren: Kenzie, Jadon, Paityn and Kharleey. Raymond was the co-owner and chairman of Tajiri Lumber, Ltd. He was a man with strong work ethic and integrity. During his teenage years he helped at the family's piggery. Then in the 1940s with his father and brothers they founded Tajiri Lumber, Ltd., a lumber salvage company, the first of its kind at that time. The company ventured into the house moving business in the 1950s, then evolved into the demolition business while continuing to use the original business name, TAJIRI LUMBER, LTD. He headed countless demolition projects including the Waikiki Biltmore Hotel (which was Hawaii's first implosion), the Alexander Young Hotel's electricity plant, Liberty House downtown, the original Hilton Hawaiian Village Tapa Tower, Castle Park and King Kamehameha Hotel in Kona. In 2013, Raymond received his patent from the United States Patent and Trademark Office for his invention of the "ripper blade", an excavator attachment for the demolition of fuel tanks. His love for his business continued even through his late 80s, as he came to work every day to "oversee" the business. Raymond and Winifred enjoyed traveling regularly to Las Vegas. His picture is displayed on the Hall of Fame wall at the Fremont Hotel. He was also a big fan of football. His other hobbies included growing fruits, vegetables, and beautiful flowers which he generously shared with family and friends. He was proud that the tree he planted when he was young and living near the area that is now known as Kahala Elementary School is still standing on the Pahoehoe Avenue corner. He was a great father, grandfather and great grandfather and will forever be remembered. Visitation: 3:00 p.m. Saturday, September 28, 2013 at Hosoi Garden Mortuary. Services: 4:00 p.m. No flowers. THORNE, DAVID R., 82, of Kailua creator of the comic strip Thorney's Zoo, educator for the D.O.E. and UH, and well known to his peers as the "Yoda of Hawaii Cartooning" for his mentorship of local cartoonists, passed away last year on July 22, 2012 due to a stroke. Dave was born and raised in Kalamazoo, Michigan where he attended Western Michigan University and later moved on to Pasadena City College in California. After serving a hitch in the Coast Guard, he then went to the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee where he received his B.S. in Art Education in 1958. In 1961 he attended Chouinard Art Institute in Los Angeles. Dave and his family came to Hawaii in December, of 1961 for a New Year's Celebration and after just 3 days he decided to stay in Paradise (as he would often say). Dave went back to LA to finish school, then in 1962 he got a job teaching art at Campbell High School. In 1966 he became a Media Specialist with the Department of Education until his retirement in 1985. He used his skills at putting ideas and concepts in a humorous fashion into the designing of teaching materials, and for the two decades plus that he worked for the DOE, almost every classroom in the state had a drawing or two of his. He gave several workshops throughout Hawaii, as well as in Micronesia and Samoa. Before retiring from the DOE, Dave became a lecturer in UH Manoa's College of Continuing Education from 1976 to 2001 teaching basic cartooning. He also worked on books with social impact. He collaborated on an AIDS awareness comic book for use in Japan; cartoon strips promoting the mainstreaming of the deaf (he was clinically deaf himself) and for Reading Literacy, as well as Non-source Pollution. His Apoha fish can still be found in the concrete on many of Hawaii's bridges and storm drains that lead to the ocean. Finally in 2007, his dream came true in his own bi-weekly newspaper comic strip, Thorney's Zoo, which appeared in the Star-Advertiser until illness struck in the fall of 2011. Surviving are: His wife of 52 years, Lorraine, two sons, Mitchell and Randall, a daughter and son-in-law, Kelly and Ivan Paik, three grandchildren, Cameron, Carissa, and Kalani, and numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews. Dave's Celebration of Life will be Saturday, July 27th at Bay View Golf Park in Kaneohe. Visitation will start at 9:30 a.m., with service at 10:30. TIFFANY, RUSSELL TIFFANY RUSSELL ROLAND YOSHIAKI KAHAKAUILA, God's special gift, skied to Heaven Easter Sunday, March 31, 2013. Two years ago, Russell got hooked on skiing at Mt. Charleston, and decided to pursue his dream of becoming a professional park skier, moving to Mt. Hood, Ore. this past October. Born Aug. 29, 1989, in Fremont, Calif., he lived most of his life in Hawaii and Las Vegas. He excelled in everything he did, soccer, baseball, basketball, playing football and volleyball for Rancho High School, where he graduated in 2008. He loved body boarding, was a black belt in Tae Kwon Do and an amazing paintball player. Russell earned the first full-ride scholarship to University of Arizona for paintball, but decided snow was his life. He loved singing, acting, writing music and playing his guitar. Quite the entrepreneur, Russell started Irie Skis. He passionately custom-made T-shirts and wished to eventually give profits from his company to injured athletes without insurance. Russell will always be remembered for his constant smile, his free and pure spirit, quick wit, good heart, bravery and his love of God, nature, family, friends and life. His crazy humor always made people laugh. Russell touched and inspired people everywhere through a good debate or an act of kindness. He would always tell everyone how "chill" his little brother was and how much he loved him. Just days before he died, he was so excited to get moving on Irie products and his new company of filming and editing on his new Go-Pro camera. One of his last words to his mom were, "I found my home. I love this place and if I die now I am in Heaven." He was preceded to heaven by his grandfather Russell B. Tiffany. He is survived by his mother, Janice; brother, Nicholas; and father, Russell J. Tiffany. A candlelight vigil, organized by his Mt. Hood, Oregon family, was held in April. The whole town came out and skied for Russell. A celebration BBQ was held in Las Vegas, Nevada many friends celebrated his life. Memorial services in Hawaii will be held at Lanikuhonua 92-1101 Aliinui Dr. Kapolei 96707 from 9:30am-12:30pm. In lieu of flowers, monetary donations will go towards Irie Ski, Russell's company. "We love you, Russell. R.I.P., rest in powder until we meet again". [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 12 July 2013]

TSEU, THEODORE K.L., 81 of Honolulu Hawaii passed away peacefully at home on January 6, 2013. He was born on March 3rd, 1931 in Kealia, Kauai to Yuk En Tseu and Shoo Tsin Tseu. His memorial service will be held privately by boat this summer, scattering his ashes at his favorite fishing spot off of Kalaupapa, Molokai. Ted graduated from Iolani School going on to Wesleyan University in Middletown, CT then Yale Medical School earning his degree in 1956. He served as an Air Force Captain for two years in Japan, became an OB/GYN and a black belt in Judo. Returning to Honolulu, Ted set up his medical practice and married Maria Elizabeth Preston. Medical teaching brought him close to his interns with whom he played tennis to “stay young”. An avid sports fan, he supported local children with sports uniforms and assisted getting others into top colleges. He represented Wesleyan University, working with potential Hawaii candidates. Remembered for his open door policy, he never turned a patient away, treating many who could not afford medical care. A teaching trip to Ponapee for a month working in very primitive conditions showed his mettle. He delivered keikis and provided pre- and post-natal care at Queens and Kapi’olani Medical Centers for several decades. In the early 1970’s, he was a pioneer in the field of gender reassignment participating with a professional team providing support in a medically challenging field. An avid hunter, fisherman, Porsche club member, antiques art/watch collector, chef and traveler, his culinary ventures took him worldwide. He is survived by daughter Gale, sons Karl and Jason, Sister Winifred Ego, four grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. He made a difference to so many people and later in life, this goodness flowed back to him in the wonderful caring people who surrounded him in his last years. The family is grateful to Bristol Hospice, Queens Community based programs and especially to Renelda Raposas, a care giver without equal. “Thank you for all our blessings Fadda, we keep you in our hearts, a treasure forever.” Condolences may be sent to Theodoreseu@gmail.com Donations in his name to Windward Spouse Abuse Shelter, would be deeply appreciated. PO Box 1955, Kailua, Hawaii 96734. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 27 January 2013]

TSUYA, JAMES KIICHI, passed away peacefully early Monday morning, July 15th, in his home in Honolulu, surrounded by his loving family. He was 89 years old. James was born and raised on Lihu’e Plantation on the Island of Kaua’i, the youngest of four children of Itsuta and Kinu Tsuya. James was among the replacement troops of the 442nd Infantry Regiment after the storied unit sustained heavy losses in the fierce fighting of World War II. After his honorable discharge from the Army, he attended technical schools on the GI Bill in Chicago, Illinois, and Hartford, Connecticut. In 1950, James married the love of his life, the former Matsue Sakamoto of Honokowai, Maui, a graduate of Lahainaluna high school. The newly-weds initially settled on the Island of Kaua'i, where three of their four daughters were born. In 1957, the family moved to Honokowai and James was sent to the Marshall Islands and Greenland where he worked on government projects for several years. His motivation for leaving Hawaii to work for such long periods of time was to earn and save enough money to buy a home in Honolulu and send each of his four daughters to college. He accomplished these goals, with all four daughters graduating from college and obtaining graduate degrees in their respective fields of study. James was a dreamer and visionary, beloved by all who met him. He is survived by wife Matsue, daughters Avis Tsuya, Liane Magelssen, Deon Rohlfing, and Lois Lloyd, brother Roy Tsuya, 13 grandchildren, and 9 great-grandchildren. Visitation is scheduled for 9 a.m. Monday, July 22, at the Kaimuki-Kahala Chapel of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, with a memorial service at 10 a.m. A private burial will be held at a later date.
