SCHEUER, ALICE ELIZABETH DASH, of Manoa, passed away peacefully in her beloved Hawai'i on August 8, 2013. She was born Alice Dash on April 10, 1923 in Baltimore Maryland, the daughter of Henry Phillip Dash and Margaret (Cook). After graduating from high school in 1941 she served her country in WWII with the US Army, attended Radcliffe College (A.B. 50, cum laude) and there met and married Paul J. Scheuer. They moved to Hawai'i in 1950 (arriving on the SS Lurline) where he began a fifty-three year career in the University of Hawai'i Chemistry Department. At UH in 1952 Alice earned an M.A. in English and in 1992 (at age 69) a PhD in Clinical Psychology. For many years she lectured in the English and Psychology Departments. A vibrant intellectual curiosity led her to numerous degrees over the years, but her attitude towards learning was summed up in her story of how upset she was when Radcliffe 'forced' her to graduate. Well into her 80s she both continued to study and teach via the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. She was an active member of many organizations, including the Honolulu Museum of Art, Royal Scottish Dance and Caledonian Societies, Harvard-Radcliffe Club, Phi Kappa Phi, and Malama Manoa. She was a committed writer, penning many freelance articles and letters to the editor. She was very active in social causes, including the anti-nuclear movement of the 1980s, which later led her to founding the local chapter of Psychologists for Social Responsibility. Beyond her family, her greatest devotion was to St. Peter's Episcopal Church, where she served on the vestry for many years. She was a deeply devoted wife and mother, and she especially loved being in the kitchen and seeing people enjoy the fruits of her culinary labors. An enormous heart and mind in a tiny person, she enlivened and contributed to any gathering of which she was a part. She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother, Kenneth, and husband Paul. She is survived by her four children, Elizabeth (Tim) Carlson New Rochelle, NY, Deborah (Howard) Haeker Gainesville, FL David (Jack Campbell) Palm City, FL and Jonathan (Cami) Honolulu, as well as grandchildren Joshua, Gainesville, FL, and Saul, Honolulu. A Memorial Service will be held on September 21, 2013. Visitation will begin at 1PM, with Services at 2. A private committal of her ashes at St. Andrew's Cathedral will be held following the service, while guests are invited to a reception at St. Peter's Parish Hall. Aloha attire is requested. Online condolences can be sent via www.hawaiianmemorialparkmortuary.com. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Paul J. SETO, HUGO S. H., as the prisms of light reflect a rainbow of colors, we are embraced by the unconditional love of Hugo. At the moment he came into our world, his intelligence, inner strength, and genuine caring shone through the twinkle of his eyes. Hugo's inquisitive nature, and practical base continued to develop throughout his early life. He operated from the heart as friends and family shared his adventures. His integrity and fairness guided his leadership at home, work and as a community volunteer. Hugo was a proud husband, father, grandfather and mentor. He believed that a "seedling" needed a secure, loving environment along with endless amounts of nourishment to cultivate strong roots. A symbiotic relationship with one's environment creates the respect and trust to be a contributing member of the community. Hugo joyfully supported each individual without judgment or prejudice, allowing each to discover his or her "joie de vivre". Many shared in his escapades, travels, golf, and culinary indulgences. Like a tree with strong roots, and copious foliage, he easily adapted and enjoyed his "World" adventures. Although never one to focus on accomplishments, Hugo's humble, open mind and innovative spirit placed him at the forefront of international business. Hugo means "bright in mind and spirit". He discovered and lived his truth and passed on peacefully. We will be forever grateful as he continues to shine upon us. SHAW, PATRICK LLOYD, was born in Guatemala City, Guatemala, to parents employed there in the U.S. Foreign Service. He lived with his parents and his older sister in Belgium, Paraguay, Indonesia, Iran, Japan, Kenya, Egypt, and graduated from high school in Bolivia. After serving 3 years in the US Army, he obtained degrees in East Asian Studies and Journalism from the University of Hawaii graduating with honors. He worked for one year in Japan before his marriage to Jodi Toguchi and for an additional two years when he and his wife both taught English there. Pat held a number of jobs in which he utilized his Japanese speaking skills in Honolulu and then in financial services on the mainland, and since 2006 has been the Hawaii representative of the cruise ship association. Pat passed away peacefully last week at home surrounded by friends and family. He is survived by his wife of 19 years, Jodi; his daughter, Lauren; his parents Oliver and Janet (Yara) Shaw of Albuquerque; his sister, Michelle Crockett and her family (Robert, Jenna & Hayli) of Arvada, Colorado; parents-in-law, Charles and Elaine Toguchi of Kaneohe; grandmother-in-law, Misao Asato; and brother-in-law, Ryan Toguchi and his family (Sonia & Taryn) of Seattle, Washington. Pat was a treasured husband, dedicated father, son, brother, son-in-law, grandson-in-law, brother-in-law, uncle, nephew, cousin of all varieties, and friend to so very many here in Hawai'i and around the world. Pat had a passion for music, basketball, fantasy football, thrill-seeking like sky diving and bungee jumping, and especially supporting his beloved Lauren in all her activities. No matter how tired or exhausted Pat felt, he willed himself to attend as many of Lauren's soccer games, performances, and school activities that he could. He was kind, charismatic, thoughtful, funny, and incredibly generous to all those whose lives he touched. Pat battled pancreatic cancer bravely for twenty-two months with the support of "Pat's Posse," and he greatly inspired those he knew with the dignity, grace, and integrity he displayed through it all. We know he is finally savoring his ultralight flight over the Ko'olaus on Oahu. Please join us in celebrating the life of Patrick Shaw on Sunday, July 21st at Central Union Church. Sinoto, Kazuko, Aug. 5, 2013 Kazuko Sinoto, 85, of Honolulu, a Hawaii immigrant history researcher, died at home. She was born in Osaka, Japan. She is survived by husband Yosihiko, son Akihiko, sister Kyoko Tremblais and three grandchildren. Private services. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 24 August 2013]

SINOTO, KAZUKO, was born in Japan to parents Shigeomi and Kinuko Sato. She came to Hawai'i in 1957, gained permanent residency in 1966, and became a US citizen in 1982, upon the passing of her father, to sponsor her mother to live in Hawai'i. On Monday, August 5, 2013, following roughly two-months of illness, she passed away surrounded by her loving family at home. She was 85-years old. She is survived by her husband of 64-years, Yosihiko Sinoto; son, Akihiko (Lucindy); and three grandsons, Luke Kaneko, Laurent (Brandy), and Leigh. Kazuko came to Hawai'i in 1957 with her son to join her husband. She was a housewife for about 5 years after which she began to work at the Bishop Museum bookstore and gift shop. She continued at the shop until 1976 when the Hawai'i Immigrant Heritage Preservation Center was established at the Museum and she became one of its staff members. Her interest turned to researching the heritage of Japanese immigrants to Hawai'i. From that time, she embarked on a 37-year occupation of collecting, cataloging, and curating various objects acquired from the general public. At the Center, she coordinated the mounting of several exhibits dealing not only with Japanese, but also other ethnic immigrants to Hawaii. In 1985, to coincide with the centennial anniversary of the first arrival of Japanese contract immigrants to Hawai'i, a pictorial history book was published by Bishop Museum. This book, co-authored by Dr. Franklin Odo and Kazuko Sinoto, resulted from her 8-years of research reviewing historic Japanese language newspapers. She researched and compiled the photographs, other illustrations, and prepared the captions. Kazuko also translated the Japanese language edition of the publication. A travelling exhibit was prepared and presented in the home prefectures of the Japanese immigrants and Kazuko accompanied the exhibit. Following her tenure at the Museum, she became an independent consultant and continued her work on Japanese immigrant history in Hawai'i. She also lectured on the subject of immigrant history to various groups in the community and to visitors. She was also a founding member of the Joseph Heco Society of Hawai'i. Recently, her efforts had been focused towards the completion of a digital catalogue of the Bishop Museum Hawai'i Japanese Immigrant Collection comprising more than 13,000 items including objects, documents, books, and photographs. She was also working towards an illustrated and annotated catalogue of selected items for publication. Her work in compiling the heritage of Japanese Immigrants to Hawai'i has received recognition both in Hawai'i and Japan. Her family fondly remembers her love of plants and flowers that she cultivated and cared for tirelessly in her garden at home. She was also an accomplished cook who would prepare the Osechi ryori or New Years feast for her family every year. A private service will be held. The Bishop Museum has

SLOGGETT, ANNA SCOTT, Born September 17, 1906 in Lihue, Kauai, Hawaii, passed away at home on January 2, 2013. Anna was a living legend, known for her irrepressible wit, and honored as a talented, dedicated and caring teacher. Her grandparents were William Hyde Rice and Mary Waterhouse Rice. She was born in Lihue to Walter H. and Mary Eleanor Rice Scott. Anna attended Kauai High School, class of 1924, Mills College, and graduated from San Francisco State College. She returned to Hawaii and taught at Kamehameha IV in Lahaina, Kawanakoa and Punahou Schools on Oahu, Lihue Grammar, Kapaa Grammar, and Elsie Wilcox Schools on Kauai. Anna taught for over 35 years. Her students remember her giving up lunch for those who had forgotten theirs and taking athletically challenged third graders by the hand to help them kick the ball and run bases in kick soft ball games. She had 8 year olds writing and producing plays. She was the first to take students on memorable excursions that enriched their lives, places such as the post office, fire station, police department, sugar and pineapple factories, Waipahe`e falls, and foreign ships berthed at Nawiliwili Harbor. She instilled a great love of reading in her students who were rewarded with special visits to her home. She never dwelled on what a student couldn't do, only on what a student could do. Anna has won awards in teaching, golf, and bridge. There is a plaque at the first tee at the Wailua Golf Course commemorating her 100th birthday. She played that day in the invitational golf tournament that honored her. Golf was her passion and she played until 2007. The Anna S. Sloggett Award was created by Women In Theater and awarded to an individual who has gone above and beyond supporting the arts on Kauai. In addition two endowed scholarships have been established in her name at the Kauai Community College: one for students in Early Childhood Education and the other for students in Elementary Education. In 2002 she was named one of Kauai's Living Treasures. In 2007 she gave the Spring Commencement Address at the Kauai Community College. She was actively involved in the community until she was 103. With all her accolades, what has made Anna Sloggett such an inspiration to her family and friends, young and old, has been her gift of friendship, her willing spirit to help others and her sense of humor. Throughout her 106 years, she stood up for the oppressed and was always there when someone need a shoulder to cry on. She was young in spirit, an inspiration, an icon who moved through the years with grace, enjoying life to the fullest. We will miss Anna mother, grandma, auntie, dear friend and mentor. Anna was preceded in death by husband, Richard H Sloggett, Sr, step-daughters, Nancy Slogett Goodale and Sally Sloggett De Harne. She is survived by daughter, Marion Scott Penhallow, son, David Penhallow Scott and step-son, Richard H. A celebration of her life will be held Friday, January 18, 2013 , at 4:00 p.m. at the Lihue Cemetery. He later went on to swim for Mike Peppe at Ohio State University, where he won fifteen National AAU Championships, eight NCAA Championships, held eighteen American Records, seven World Records and in 1948 was Captain of the United States Olympic Swimming team and won two gold medals at the London Olympic Games. He was inducted into the International Swimming Hall of Fame, the Hawaii Sports Hall of Fame, the Hawaii Swimming Hall of Fame, the Ohio State University Athletic Hall of Fame and named the Ohio State University Swimmer of the Century. Upon his return to Honolulu, he worked for the City and County of Honolulu, as Water Safety Director, for over thirty years. During his tenure, the lifeguard service grew from six lifeguards on the beaches in Waikiki, to over 300 guards protecting the public at the many beaches throughout the entire island of Oahu. He was particularly proud of hiring the uniquely skilled watermen at the dangerous beaches at Makaha, Pipeline, Sunset Beach and Waimea Bay. learned under Coach Sakamoto and the Three Year Swimming Club. He coached swimmers at Kaneohe Bay Swim Club and for twenty five years at Kamehameha Swim Club.
