Wayne was born on November 22, 1930, in Brighton, Colorado, to August and Frieda Delventhal on a farm homesteaded by his grandparents. Wayne was the eldest son and brother to Keith and Glen. As a boy, Wayne worked on the family farm and was active in 4-H, achieving a National Junior Vegetable Grower award. Eager to leave farming behind, Wayne convinced his parents to send him to Seward, Nebraska, for high school and graduated in 1948. Wayne subsequently received a Lutheran teaching certificate in 1951 and Bachelors Degree in 1953 from Concordia University in Seward. Wayne received his Masters of Elementary Administration degree from Indiana University in 1962. Wayne dedicated his life to the education of children in schools of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod. Wayne was assigned to begin his teaching career in Crown Point, Indiana for the fall term, 1951, where he taught grades 3, 4, and 5. On December 30, 1951, Wayne married the love of his life, Viola Elaine Heath, of Brighton, Colorado. It was in Indiana where the couple welcomed sons David Wayne (1954) and Paul Logan (1956) into their family. In 1956, the family relocated to Colorado Springs, Colorado, where Wayne had the privilege of starting an elementary school for Redeemer Lutheran Church. In Colorado Springs, Janice Elaine (1959) and Douglas Eugene (1960) were born. Sadly, Douglas passed away shortly after birth. In 1962, Wayne accepted a position as the principal of Trinity Lutheran School in Wahiawa. He enjoyed snorkeling and playing the ukulele with family and friends around evening bon fires at the beach in Haleiwa. Wayne and Elaine welcomed son Mark William to the family in 1962. In 1984, Wayne began teaching and later became the principal for Our Savior Lutheran School in Aiea. Wayne retired from teaching in 1996. In retirement, Wayne and Elaine were blessed to travel extensively and spend time with their family. He volunteered at Our Savior in the library and served on the School Board. He was the representative for California District Church Extension Fund for the Hawaiian Islands. Wayne was active in Friends of Waialua Library, Friends of Waialua Bandstand, and Aloha Patrol at Waimea Bay. Wayne also assisted his son, Dave, with the production of Hawaii’s Special Papaya Seed Dressing. Wayne and Elaine celebrated 60 years of marriage on December 30, 2011.
