FRANCESCO, MARTHA, April 26, 1933 – Oct. 18, 2012 Martha Victor Francesco, age 79, and a longtime resident of College Place, passed away peacefully while surrounded by her family on Oct. 18, 2012. She was born on April 26, 1933, in Pauoa, Territory of Hawaii. Martha was a devoted wife of 60 years to her husband, Rocco R. Francesco. Raised in Hawaii, Martha was a member of St. Agustin Catholic Church in Waikiki on the island of Oahu. She often recalled leaving church on the morning of Dec. 7, 1941, and seeing many planes flying overhead toward Pearl Harbor. Martha graduated from Kaimuki High School in 1951 and soon after met Rocco, a young Air Force airman, stationed at Hickam AFB, whom she later married. After Rocco was honorably discharged from the Air Force, they moved to upstate New York with their first child in tow. Their family would be complete with their sixth child born in 1962. Always missing Hawaii, Martha and Rocco once again called Hawaii home in 1968. As a homemaker, Martha enjoyed her family and her large extended Hawaiian family. She truly was a gentle soul who always found beauty and compassion even in the most difficult situations. Martha's sense of humor often did not match her quiet, unassuming ways. In 1986, a year after her husband retired from teaching, they moved back to upstate New York. It was here that Martha found her love for gardening, which often resulted in an abundance of produce that was enjoyed by neighbors and friends. Eventually the decision was made to move closer to their eldest son, which brought her to live in College Place/Walla Walla, about 10 years ago. It is here that she peacefully lived out the final years of her life. Martha is preceded in death by her parents, Edward Wikoli Victor and Esther Makaena; her son, Jon W.; her son-in-law, Valentine Santarone Sr.; and her brother-in-law, Tommy Abihai. She is survived by her husband, Rocco Francesco; her son and daughter-in-law, Ronald Kalani and Lara Francesco; her daughter, Darlene Leilani Santarone; her daughter and son-in-law, Desiree Ipolani and Marshall McKillip; her son and daughter-in-law, Kevin Nahua and Karen Francesco; her son, John Kuipo Francesco; older sister, Rose Abihai; 11 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. A private service was held for the immediate family in remembrance of Martha's life. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Vincent de Paul through the Herring Groseclose Funeral Home, 315 W. Alder, Walla Walla, WA 99362. Family and friends are invited to sign the online guestbook at www.herringgroseclos.com. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 6 November 2012]

FRYER, ROSELINE, 91, of Honolulu passed away September 27th, 2012 at home with loved ones around her. She will be remembered as a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, aunt and friend. Roseline Medeiros was born in Makawao, Maui on May 9th 1921. She grew up on Maui then moved to Oahu with her family where she did some modeling and attended business school. She then worked at American Can Company where she met her husband, Eric Fryer. A deeply religious and devoted Catholic, Roseline treasured her faith, fellow parishioners and the sanctity of the Holy Church. Later she worked at Star of the Sea as a rectory support assistant and volunteered at numerous religious and charitable organizations such as the Third order of Mary, 616 Lady Elks and Star of the Sea Church. She was a very creative person who taught arts & crafts, and her favorite activities included bazaars, fundraisers and carnivals. Roseline will be missed by those surviving her: Son Jeff (wife Marla) and grandchildren (Alex and Amber) of Arizona. She will also be missed by her beloved sister Florence Puana of Honolulu, numerous nieces, nephews, and sister-in-laws Gloria Medeiros, Delphina Medeiros and Agnes Medeiros. The family would like to express their sincere gratitude to all of the friends, clergy, Doctors, Hospice and Private Duty care individuals who provided care and prayers over the past few years. We know she is at peace, resting comfortably and will be always with us in our hearts. Her Memorial will be held on Saturday, October 27th, 2012 at Star of the Sea Church beginning at 9:30am with visitation then mass at 11:00am. Her internment, next to Eric, will be at Diamond Head Cemetery at 12:45pm. All are invited to join the family for a lunch reception at the Diamond Head Mortuary lanai area beginning at 12:45pm.
