Lai, Mildred, 94, died June, 10th 2012 at her home with her family by her side. Born November 23, 1917, in Honolulu, to Hee Shin Mau and Kim Oi Mau (Goo). She met Luke Lai on a pier when they were in high school and she just had to ask him to the dance- bold move for a woman in 1936. It was love at first sight. They later married Aug 16, 1941 and spent 47 wonderful years together. Mildred was always willing to lend an ear and help you find the answers without saying too much. Her quiet yet sharp sense of humor could make anyone laugh with just a couple of words. She was always one to remind us of the importance of the simple things in life. She was pre-deceased by her beloved husband Luke Lai in 1988; her devoted daughters, Lynette Pang in 2006, and Laura Chang in 2010. She leaves her loving memories to be cherished by her son, Leland Lai; grandchildren, Jeff Chang, Devan, Denton, & Dana Pang, Lynzee Lai, and; great grandchild Megan Chang. Services will be held at the Hawaiian Memorial Park Cemetery Chapel on Saturday, July 21, 2012. A public viewing will be held from 9-10am followed by services. Burial at 11am. Dress attire will be Hawaiian casual. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 11 July 2012]

Lecavelier, Mary Mau, 1943- 2012, passed away at home on June 4, 2012. She was predeceased by her husband, Bernard in 2007 and she leaves behind six siblings as well as numerous nieces and nephews. Mary graduated from Maryknoll High School and the University of Hawaii. She garnered a long term job as a computer programmer for the County of Los Angeles. Eventually, she returned to Hawaii to assist in computerizing Hawaii Tax and Bookkeeping Services. Her mentor was her father, Henry. She delved into the business world and explored real estate ventures in buying and selling conversions and 1031 exchanges. Having tolerant employers (her mom and dad) and financial stability, she traveled extensively especially to Tahiti where she met her husband, Bernard. She could not say “no” to a man who sailed three weeks in a 13ft boat from Tahiti to be with her. Bernard’s death in 2007 left a large void. Stress, anxiety, and sleepless nights took its toll as her already weakened heart failed. Through it all she maintained a sense of humor and an impish look in her eye. A celebration of her life will be held on Saturday, June 30 at Nuuanu Memorial Park & Mortuary. Visitation: 4 p.m. and Service: 5 p.m. Aloha attire. Her ashes will be scattered at a later date. Lee, John Kealaiki, passed away August 17, 2012 at his home. He was born March 21, 1933 to Joseph and Elizabeth Noa Lee in Honolulu. He was the youngest in a family of nine children. In this large family the values of cooperation, hard work, and sharing with others were instilled in him. He was a 1951 graduate of Kamehameha Schools. John was also a long-time employee of Pan American World Airways which afforded him and his family opportunities for worldwide travel; African safaris, Hong Kong epicurean dining, cruises on the Rhine, and treks at the Great Wall. He was a member of Mamaka Ai'alo, an organization dedicated to the preservation of Hawaiian culture. John will be remembered as thoughtful, generous, and kind, as a loving husband and father, and a true, great friend. Annual Alaskan fishing expeditions would often yield great bounties of salmon He would carefully can and share with many family members, friends, and acquaintances. At New Year's one of his great joys was to coordinate the preparation of hundreds of laulau, also given to friends and family. He touched many lives by his positive frame of mind, outlook on life, and selfless manner. Indeed, John embodied the Hawaiian proverb, "Ha'awi, ha'awi, ha'awi pau loa", Give, give, give till it's all gone. He will be missed by his wife, Maile, sons, John, Jr., Jeff, Jay, daughter, Jamie Yamashita, four grandchildren, nephews, nieces, brother-in-law, James Kalani, and many friends. Loui, Terrence Desmond “Terry”, age 53 died at home on May 24, 2012, in Honolulu, Hawaii from complications secondary to strokes. Terry was born on March 5, 1959, in Honolulu, Hawaii. He was a retired information hardware and software technologist, local area network specialist and systems analyst. He was 7 years old when it was discovered he had a rapidly growing brain tumor. The prognosis was poor, and the doctors predicted he would live 5 years. He was given experimentally high irradiation treatments when the tumor could not be removed in the entirety. This resulted in extensive brain damages. He was on life sustaining drugs for many years and suffered from many TIA episodes and strokes. However, he survived 41 more years than prognosticated. He graduated from Punahou School in 1978 and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1982 in computer science from Chaminade University of Honolulu. The road he traveled was full of potholes and roadblocks, but he met each challenge with determination and great courage. While working at Wheeler Army Air Field in Honolulu, Hawaii, he was recognized by the Defense Information System Agency-Pacific area for answering and resolving over 300 trouble calls in a two months period for a varying staff of 60-100 people. He was honored as employee of the month for Region 9, which encompasses the West Coast and Pacific area, for his knowledge, efficiency and effectiveness. Prior to his medical retirement he worked for the Hawaii Department of Health, Health Information Systems Office and assigned to the State Health Insurance Program. He also did volunteer work for many non-profit organizations during his lifetime. Terry is survived by his mother, Florence J. Chinn, M.D. (Florence Chinn Loui), brothers; Professor Michael C. Loui (Cynthia), Warren R. Loui, Esq. (Rose), William S. Loui, M.D. (Sheree) and Professor Ronald P. Loui (Melissa); nephews Eric, Jeremy, Nicholas, Ryan, Thomas, Kyle, Alexander, and Gregory; nieces Samantha and Natalie. Memorial service will be held on August 17, 2012 at Mystical Rose Oratory at Chaminade University in Honolulu, Hawaii. Visitation 10:30 a.m. to 11am. Service at 11:00 a.m. Inurnment will be in Sacramento, CA on September 1, 2012 at Masonic Lawn Association Cemetery. Aloha attire. No flowers. Donations may be made in lieu of flowers to the Terrence Desmond Loui Scholarship Fund at Chaminade University. [Honolulu Advertiser 12 August 2012]
