Magoon, Ann (Annie Bee) Elizabeth Blanchart, born in Honolulu. 1934-2012. Beginning a new journey my Ann departed this earth: something facing all of us. Her earliest years Aliiolani School, Kaimuki, Kailua School, and as it was once referred to the Poor Mans Punahou, Roosevelt High School. Best description of Ann, competitiveness, be it work, sports, volunteer or play. Her career, West Coast Life, Running the Music Corner, Kaneohe, Castle Memorial Hospital, President International non academic sorority Beta Sigma Phi; nearest dearest competition, American Contract Bridge Club where she regularly took em to the cleaners. However: most important in life, family, lifelong friends from little kid time, and her love and often forgiveness to me, Jerry her husband. I, my family express our gratitude, appreciation to the Doctors, Our Health Provider, Nurses, LPN's, Friends that gave us the strength through this difficult time. We will forever carry your love and kindness in our hearts. To all the others, Mahalo Nui Loa. Ann's words from beginning to end, A Hui Hou, until we meet again. Our love, Jerry & Family and I share from an anonymous individual: you can't take the pain out of death unless you take the love out of Life. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 31 August 2012]

Martin, Robert Bradford "Brad", 1957-2012 Suddenly, unexpectedly, Brad Martin passed away Monday, July 30th. He left behind a family who loved him greatly, wife Robin, daughters Lauren and Kelly, sister Ann, brothers Peter and Steve, and a wonderful mother Nancy as well as a network of greatly valued friends and clients. Brad attended Punahou School and the University of Kansas. He was a commercial insurance broker with Insurance Factors, an avid tennis player, golfer, and skier, and loved being on the water and at the beach. Brad lived his 54 years with a spirit of adventure and a love of life and all those around him. His wife always teased him because whenever Brad mentioned someone, even someone she had never heard of in their 20 years of marriage, he said, "Great Guy!! A really good friend!" That is simply how Brad saw those he lived, worked and played with over the years. Brad loved excitement of any kind. Venturing out with his daughters on their monthly adventure with his father daughter group, traveling to the far reaches of the globe, or simply rushing down the street to see what was causing the ruckus in the neighborhood all gave Brad joy. Camera and binoculars in hand, Brad was excited to tackle the world. Brad has moved on now but all who love him know that his spirit is out there enjoying the next big event. The family has asked that in lieu of flowers donations can be made to the Kapiolani Health Foundation, 55 Merchant Street #2600, Honolulu, HI 96813, or KapiolaniGift.org. Mashita, Grace Etsuko, March 19, 1929 to May 30, 2012 Grace was born in the hills behind Lanikai on a farm to Kazuki and Suya Mashita. From seeing the planes fly over her fields during the Japanese attack in 1941 to later traveling the entire world, Grace lived a rich and exciting life. She spent her final years in Honolulu where her long daily walks from the Banyan Tree Plaza took her all around the city. Grace became a member of the Arthur family (long-time Lanikai/Kailua residents) in 1947 after graduating from McKinley high school. Until her passing she was revered as an honored Mother and Grandmother as well as Auntie to many nieces and nephews. To everyone she was the finest example of a person who truly "lived aloha". Mahalo Grace, you enriched and touched so very many lives. She leaves siblings Katherine, Gladys and Stanley and numerous nieces and nephews. Also mourning her passing are children Philip, Peter, Ann and Mary and many grandchildren and great-grand-children. A private service will take place in September. Grace will then rest with her family at the Valley of the Temples in Kaneohe. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 8 July 2012]

MILHAUPT, TERRY SATSUKI, was born to Thomas and Grace Unemori in Kailua, Hawaii on May 15, 1959. She died in New York City on November 21, 2012. Terry attended Kailua High School and the University of Hawaii. She studied at Sophia University in Tokyo under a Crown Prince Akihito Scholarship, where she met her husband, Curtis J. Milhaupt. Terry received a Masters Degree from Columbia University and a Ph.D. in Art History from Washington University in St. Louis. One of the world’s leading experts on Japanese textiles, she staged museum exhibitions, lectured widely, and conducted research on Asian art and textile collections around the world. She was due to begin a position as Associate Curator of Asian Textiles at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, which plans to stage an exhibition based on her forthcoming book on Japanese Kimono (Reaktion Press). Terry was first and foremost a loving wife and mother, active in New York baseball leagues and school functions with her beloved son, Conrad. She touched countless lives with her spirit of optimism, generosity and compassion. Terry is survived by Curtis J. Milhaupt, her husband of 27 years, and son Conrad, both of New York City, mother Grace Unemori, sisters Joyce Unemori and Karen (Harris) Matsushima, nephew and niece Reid and Gail Matsushima, all of Oahu, brother-in-law John Milhaupt, sister-in-law Kris (Dave) Frost, and nephew and nieces Michael and Nicole Milhaupt and Sarah and Rachel Frost, all of Wisconsin. A Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, December 28 at 6:00pm at the home of Kelly and Patrick La‘a, 46 Puukani Place, Kailua, Oahu. Donations can be made to the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Hawaii in her memory. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 22 December 2012]

Moore, Cecily "Oma", was born to Sanemon and Meta (Eckhart) Teshima in the plantation town of Waihee Maui on November 13, 1908. She was the 2nd eldest of 8 siblings and enjoyed the few pleasures and many rigors of plantation living, working in the pineapple fields and the butcher shop during her youth, besides helping her mom with the younger children. She attended Maui High, and after graduating she was sponsored to attend nursing school at Queen's Hospital on Oahu. Upon her graduation as an RN, she worked at various hospitals and before settling in at Leahi Hospital where she remained until her retirement in 1972. Cecily met and married Robert J. Moore in 1932, and they raised four children, Carol (Tom) Warden, Robert Jr. (Paulette), and Susannah (Sheldon) Katsutani. Cecily was preceded in death by her spouse and son Richard (Kris). Oma is also encircled by 10 grandchildren and 27 greater-grandchildren. Since enrolling her older children in Epiphany School in 1940, Cecily became a lifelong member of that Church, which remained the foundation for her life and faith thereafter. She served on the Altar Guild with her sister Lily Pearson for over 30 years and seldom missed a service until her later years. The Epiphany community became her extended family and she spoke lovingly of those dear friends and ministers who shared that community with her. When asked the secret to her longevity, Oma would reply "God let me live so long because He loves sinners". Oma left us peacefully on Saturday morning, September 1, 2012, at Leahi Hospital, which had been her home for almost 3 years. She was 103 years old. Her family will long remain grateful for the loving and attentive care she received at Leahi from nurses and the caring staff, who treated her with love, humor, respect and dignity. Oma will be missed, but remains bright in our memories. Aloha oe. Services will be held at Epiphany Church on September 29, 2012 with visitation at 9:30 a.m. and services commencing at 10 a.m. No flowers please. Aloha attire is welcome. Mugiishi, Dixon Yoshihiko, passed away on June 16, 2012 after a beautiful fulfilling lifetime of genuine caring and loving of others. Without fail, he inquired about others first. Born in Wailuku, Maui, he remained close to his childhood friends and fellow Baldwin graduates with annual reunions and gatherings. He was elected Student Body Vice-President at the University of Hawaii, and he and his UH buddies were inseparable for life. Colleagues and clients that benefited from his career as an award-winning insurance agent at Prudential and Atlas all became his friends, realizing that for Dixon, care always trumped personal gain. He was recognized with Prudential's McNaughton Award for service to community for volunteerism in such endeavors as the Japanese Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Governor's Developmental Disability Council. His influence at Iolani School was immense, where over time he chaired the Carnival, sat on the Board of Governors as Chair of the Education Committee, and ultimately became the Raider basketball team's number #1 fan and most personable and recognizable constant behind the bench. So many people called him "friend", and that included his loving family who found his optimistic, friendly, engaging, and caring demeanor ideal for calling him more than just husband or father, but also "true friend." We will all miss how much his vitality, kindness, and generosity of spirit enriched our lives. He is survived by his loving wife Doris Mugiishi, sons Kevin Mugiishi and Dr. Mark Mugiishi, and brother Masami Mugiishi. Services will be held at Nuuanu Memorial Park & Mortuary on Sunday, July 1 at 6 PM with visitation at 5 PM. Attire is casual and the family requests no flowers.
