Radtke, Dr. Richard L., World renowned Marine Biologist and underwater explorer Dr. Richard L. Radtke 60, died Tuesday Aug. 7, 2012 at South Memorial Hospital in South Bend, Indiana. He was born July 9, 1952 in Knox, Indiana. He was surrounded by his loving and caring family. He is survived by his mother Eunice Burgner and stepfather Larry of Knox, His son David Radtke of California and daughter Ocean Radtke of Hawaii. Sister Claudette (Jim) Ludwig of Knox, brothers Rev.Clifford (Beverly) Radtke of Michigan, Alan (Evelyn) Radtke of Denham and Douglas (Margaret) Radtke of North Judson, and one granddaughter Emily of California. Also numerous nephews and nieces. He graduated from North Judson High School, North Judson, Indiana, in 1970. He received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Indiana, in 1974, and his Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina, in Marine Science in December 1978, at the age of 26. At the age of 28, Dr. Radtke was diagnosed with MS. At age 47, Dr. Richard Radtke was a Full Professor in Biological Oceanography, in the School of Ocean and Earth Sciences and Technology at the University of Hawaii. He is considered an authority in fish biology and is a leader in three fields of fish biology. (1) larval fish ecology, (2) large pelagic fish population (tunas, billfishes, and sharks) (3) Antarctic and Arctic fish ecology. Some of his other interests include photography, scuba diving, fishing and sailing. He is credited with over 70 publications and numbers (>100) scientific meeting presentations. His experiences at sea include two trips to Antarctica wherein he is the first disabled scientist to accomplish research in Antarctica for which he was awarded a U.S. Presidential Commendation, just one of many awards and honors he has been accorded. He has accomplished research in his field in Thailand, Philippines, Japan, New Zealand, Australia, Spain, South America, Norway, Germany, Great Britain, USSR, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, the North Atlantic, Kona (one the island of Hawaii), Oahu and northern Norway. These are noteworthy and phenomenal accomplishments. Throughout his professional career Dr. Radtke has never lost sight of the community-at-large. In his spare time, he has inspired students and adults through special presentations on his work and life. He has worked with groups of handicapped people, and was on the Board of Directors of the Multiple Sclerosis Society-Hawaiian Islands Chapter, the ALOHA Special Technology Access Center, Inc., Winners at Work and the Hawaii Center for Independent Living and Easter Seals. He received the University of Hawaii's highest award for community service, The Robert W. Clopton Award for Distinguished Community Service. For his career accomplishments and community service, Dr. Richard Radtke has been honored as one of Hawaii's 3 Outstanding Young Persons of 1990 and disabled person of the year for 1990. He was named to Who's Who in Science and Engineering, inducted into the North Judson Hall of Fame, and selected as an American Association for the Advancement of Science Diplomacy Fellow. Dr. Richard Radtke received a US Presidential Award for Excellence in Science, Mathematics and Engineering Mentoring (one of ten in the nation). He went on to win other awards and accolades. Dr. Richard Radtke was truly inspirational. Dr. Radtke recently retired after 25 years as a full Professor in Biological Oceanography in the School of Ocean and Earth Science and Technology at the University of Hawaii. It is said that one loses something only to find that something else is gained. He demonstrates strength and clarity of will and purpose that may be the uncommon gifts of his physical disability. RAINALTER, VERENA, Long time Kailua resident Verena Bonin Rainalter, 73, passed away peacefully on Saturday, October 20, with her family at her bedside. She had waged a brave year-long fight against cancer, maintaining her characteristic cheerfulness and optimism right up to the end. Verena was born on May 12, 1939 in Berlin, Germany, and was raised in Germany and Austria. After receiving her Abitur degree, she worked in Germany, Canada and San Francisco before making her home in Kailua where she resided for almost 50 years. All who knew her admired her zest for life and reveled in her great sense of humor. A loving mother and grandmother, Verena was also active in business and community affairs. She served as Treasurer and Controller of Rainalter Holdings Limited and other related business entities for many years. Always dressed in style, during the 1980s she owned and operated a popular fashion boutique in Downtown Honolulu appropriately named "Verena". More recently, she was in commercial real estate, managed Hula Moon in Kailua, and owned and operated Hawaii-Aloha Accommodations from the late 1990s until the time of her passing. She loved the beach, boating, hula, kiho`alu, tennis, golf, yoga, snow skiing, travel, socializing with family and friends, and taking care of her grandkids who loved hanging out with their "Oma Susse". She was a member of the Kailua Chamber of Commerce, Halau Hula Na Puakea O Ko`olaupoko, Kailua Racquet Club, The Hula Rock Mamas, and previously, Kaneohe Yacht Club for many years. Verena is survived by daughters Monique "Nini" Maxey (Richard "Rick") and Uta Johanna Rainalter, both of Kailua; son William "Jack" Rainalter of Denver; brother Hans-Edwin "John" Bonin of Canada; former husband U.J. "Rick" Rainalter, Jr.; grandchildren Desi, Nani, 'Iwi Kea, Isaiah and Hudson; cousins Kay, Beatrice and Jens Flohr of Germany; long time tennis partner Lei McDiarmid and husband Flip; and her many dear friends and family members. The family wishes to thank the doctors and nursing staff at Kaiser Hospital for their exceptionally dedicated and competent care. Services will be held on Kailua Beach fronting her home at 4 pm on Saturday, December 8, 2012. Park your car mauka of N. Kalaheo Ave. and walk to beach through the 152/156 N. Kalaheo Private Lane (look for "Verena" signs). Celebration of life to follow at 21 Kalaka Place, just a short stroll down the beach from the services. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the American Cancer Society. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 04 November 2012]

RICHARDS, CREIGHTON KAMAKAHO'OHIE, 1938-2012 Creighton ("Fuzzy") Kamakaho'ohie Richards, 74, passed away peacefully on October 21, 2012 in Honolulu, Hawaii. Born on June 19, 1938, he was the eldest son of Louis K. Richards and Carolyn Iwanaga. He married his best friend, Roberta Mapuana Aiona, 48 years ago and together they had three children, Reid, Ross and Keala. After graduating early from St. Louis College (now St. Louis High School) at age 16, Creighton earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Hawaii. From there, his professional career encompassed several different areas, finally ending in the airline industry at American Airlines. Working for the airlines allowed Fuzzy and his wife many opportunities to travel the world which made them very happy. During his spare time, Creighton loved to coach youth baseball and referee basketball. He refereed at all levels but loved high school the best because the players made it a fun sport. He was also involved in substitute teaching. He loved to teach math because it was his favorite subject and particularly to middle school students because they were so impressionable and eager to learn. The students enjoyed and respected him because he would take the time to help them understand at their level. Fuzzy is survived by his wife Roberta, two children Ross and Keala, his brother Lloyd, sisters Ann and Lyberta as well as seven grandchildren. He will be remembered in many positive ways and for how he touched the lives of those he knew. He will be revered as a proud, honorable gentleman with a mind full of knowledge and a heart full of tenderness and love. He knew how to have a good time and would want people to celebrate his life rather than mourn his death. Please come and be a part of this celebration on November 10, 2012 at Mystical Rose Chapel on the slopes of Kalaipohaku at St. Louis High School. Fuzzy's celebration of life will begin at 10 am with refreshments to follow. No flowers please. Contributions may be made to the Reid J.K. Richards

Foundation, PO Box 61526, Honolulu, Hawaii 96839. [Honolulu Star-Advertiser 04 November 2012]

Richardson, Jacqueline Watson, passed away peacefully on September 6, 2012 in Weymouth, MA. She was a long time resident of the Honolulu area. Jackie was born in Hackensack, NJ in 1930. She was a generous soul and caregiver all her life. She attended Leonia High School in Hackensack and graduated from Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, NY with a B.S. degree in nursing in 1952. Jackie also had a spirit for adventure and after working in New York City for a few years as a nurse, she and a college classmate set out on a Hawaiian vacation with the idea of investigating the job market while they were there. Jackie fell in love with the islands, was hired by Straub Clinic and worked there intermittently until 1977. She married John F. "Jack" Richardson, Jr. in 1955 and settled into a busy life on Oahu raising four children while working evenings and holidays at Straub. When the children were older, she took a job with Hawaii Public Schools and was employed as a school health aide for eleven years. She retired from Wilson Elementary in 1989. After her children were grown and she resigned from nursing, Jackie focused her energies volunteering in her community, entertaining island visitors, and rekindling her passion for adventure. She was a volunteer at Hawaii Public Radio, Planned Parenthood, and Holy Nativity Episcopal Church. She and Jack travelled world-wide – to Africa, through the Panama Canal, and all over Europe. However, her favorite trips were always to attend Skidmore class reunions and visit her grandchildren on the mainland. Jackie is survived by Jack, her husband of 56 years and their children Mark Richardson of Huntington Beach, CA, Claudia Seaver (David) of Eaton, CO, John F. Richardson, III (Kathy) of Seattle, WA and Jill O'Brien (Tom) of Marshfield, MA, eight grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. Remembrances can be made in Jacqueline W. Richardson's name to Aloha Shriners Children's Transportation Fund, c/o Aloha Shriners, 1611 Kewalo Street, Suite 201, Honolulu, HI 96822. The family is planning a private memorial in California. RYAN, LIEUTENANT CATHERINE LORI JOHANN, 31, passed away on 22 September 2012, at her home in Waialua, Hawaii. She was born 6 July 1981, and was a 1999 graduate of Bayport-Blue Point High School, in Bayport, N.Y. During her time as a "Phantom", she excelled both athletically and academically. Upon completion of her studies she was recruited and attended the United States Coast Guard Academy in New London, CT. She graduated with the Class of 2003 earning a Bachelor of Science in Management. Catharine reached a high level of achievement in both her basketball and volleyball careers. She earned numerous All-Conference honors and set many records. After completion of her studies, she served on the All-Navy volleyball team seven times. Each outing resulted in individual tournament honors, including her selection to the All-Armed Forces team. This elite group of athletes traveled across the world to countries such as Italy, India, and Brazil. Her accolades also included two trips to the World Military Games. In 2005, she was named Coast Guard elite female athlete of the year. She was admired and respected by all of her teammates, coaches and opponents. During her athletic endeavors, she also attended flight training at NAS-Pensacola and was pinned in 2007. In her latest assignment, Lieutenant Ryan served as an MH-65C Aircraft Commander, CGAS-Barbers Point, Hawaii. Prior to this, she served as a deck officer aboard the USCGC RUSH (WHEC-723), home ported in Honolulu. Her past assignments included the now decommissioned USCGC SASSAFRAS (WLB-401), based out of Apria Harbor, Guam, and USCGC EAGLE (WIX-327), a 295-foot historic "tall ship". Lieutenant Ryan's military decorations included the Coast Guard Achievement Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Coast Guard Expert Rifle Medal, Coast Guard Pistol Sharpshooter Ribbon, Coast Guard Special Operations Service Ribbon, Coast Guard "E" Ribbon, Coast Guard Sea Service Ribbon and numerous other unit awards and citations. Catharine lived a fulfilling, adventurous and enjoyable life with her husband, Kyle Ryan, and pets on the North Shore of Oahu. They spent many years together—at home, on the sea, under the ocean and around the world. Lieutenant Ryan is survived by her mother, C. Ann Demott of Sayville, NY, her father, Arthur R. Johann of Bayport, NY, her grandmother Constance Hoernel, and her siblings, Heather, Arthur F. and Eric and husband Kyle. She will be loved and missed forever, by many aunts, uncles, cousins, in-laws, friends, commanders and subordinates. She will be interred at National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, “the Punchbowl”. The service will take place Friday, September 28th, at 3pm and will include full military honors. In accordance with Catharine’s exact requests, and in lieu of flowers, donations are graciously accepted and may be sent to the Self Realization Fellowship (www.yoganatnda-srf.org). The SRF is dedicated to fostering a spirit of greater understanding and goodwill among the diverse peoples and religions of our global family, and to help those of all cultures and nationalities to realize and express more fully in their lives the beauty, nobility, and divinity of the human spirit.
