SEU, MICHAEL HEONG CHEN, 65, of Pupukea, passed away peacefully on November 8, 2012 after a brief battle with cancer. He was born on February 8, 1947 in Honolulu, Hawai'i and was the only son of Rosaline L. Seu and David Ah Sung Siu. Mike graduated from St. Louis High School in 1965 and attended Chamande University, graduating with a degree in Mathematics in 1969. After graduation, he was immediately drafted into the armed forces and served as an M.P. in the Vietnam war. He was a decorated veteran and honorably discharged in May 1971. Mike was married on March 15, 1975 to Susan Volpert in Honolulu. He took great pride in developing their property on the north shore of O'ahu, where they raised their three sons. Affectionately known as "Uncle Mike", he enjoyed diving, cooking, gardening, and spending time with family, friends, and his dogs. He often combined these hobbies by cooking for his friends and family with produce from the garden. Mike worked as a surveyor for the Hawaii Insurance Bureau for three years before joining Liberty Mutual Insurance Company in 1973. In 1993, Mike joined Alexander & Alexander – Hawaii (now Aon Risk Solutions Inc.) as a Senior

Risk Control Consultant. His survivors include his wife Susan; three sons Keoki, Kalani and Alika; mother Rosaline L. Seu; and sister Claudette Lundin. Shimazu, Lawrence Mitsuo, 90, passed away peacefully in Honolulu. “A flower lei circlet, knows no loneliness, as it hugs the happy traveler”-Haiku by Lawrence Shimazu Lawrence lived a full and happy life having accomplished all that he wanted during his lifetime. He graduated from McKinley High School and attended the University of Hawaii and received his Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees in Horticulture, Art, and Business Education. Few years later, he attended New York University and obtained his Master of Arts in Business Education and enrolled in the doctoral program. He was also initiated into the New York University Alpha Chapter of Delta Pi Epsilon (an honorary graduate fraternity in Business Education). On his sabbatical leave, he attended Hitotsubashi University in Japan to expand his knowledge in Japanese History and Art. He also graduated from the local Japanese Language School (equivalent to junior college level) enabling him to speak and write Japanese characters fluently. In his earlier years, he taught at Farrington High School and was the chairman of the Business Department. Soon after, he transferred to the University of Hawaii Community College at Pensacola and was appointed by the Provost to serve as Chairman for the entire Business Department. During this professional career, he was honored as outstanding educator by the Hawaii Business Education Association. In addition, he was the Proprietor of Flowers by Lawrence on South King Street for 35 years where he was well known for his exquisite floral arrangements and wedding bouquets. He worked diligently but made time to relax and traveled extensively to many places in the world. However, his favorite was to his ancestral country, Japan, where he visited over 60 times and countless times to Las Vegas and won many jackpots. Lawrence, indeed, fulfilled his life’s dream leaving nothing he wished he had done. He was predeceased in death by brothers, Iwao and Tokutaro; sisters, Dorothy Nakayama, Ellen Yamamoto, and Eleanore Maehara. Survived by sister, Laura Inake, and numerous nieces and nephews; companion and caregiver, Van Isotani; hanai couple and caregivers, Derrick and Sai; nieces and caregivers, Shirley and Nadine. Lawrence will be remembered as a highly talented man with a keen sense of humor and intelligence. “Memories flicker like lighted candle, a journey’s end”. Haiku by Lawrence Shimazu. SMITH, RITA LOUISE GREEN, 86, of Kailua, Oah'u, passed away in her ocean-side home on November 12, 2012. Rita was born on August 7, 1926 in Delta, Colorado. She was raised in Delta and Austin, Colorado while her father raised fruit at the College Farm. During World War II she attended Colorado State College and participated in sorority activities. She graduated from CSC with a B.S. in life sciences with a certification to teach. Rita married Max Smith on July 11, 1948. She assisted Max at an animal hospital in Safford, Arizona for 14 years. Then in 1965 the family surprised relatives and moved to Hawaii where Max worked as a veterinarian for the State of Hawaii. Rita taught science for 24 years at King Intermediate in Kaneohe. She was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and served in various positions. She enjoyed supporting community activities such as the annual Easter Egg Hunt and many rodeo events at Gunstock Ranch, the family ranch in Laie. Rita was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. The family thanks the loving caregivers who, during Rita's declining years, allowed her to remain in her home watching the sunrise over the Mokulua Islands and hearing Kailua Bay's soothing surf even until the day of her death. She was preceded in death by her husband Max Bigler Smith, parents Ferris Milton Green and Effie Elnora Cofer, and her sister Dale Green Lawson. Rita is survived by her six children, Barry (Susie) Smith, Kris Anne (Paul) Gustavson, Kari (George) Archibald, Troy (Carey) Smith, Jon (Anne) Smith and Greg (Kyndra) Smith. She is also survived by 26 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. A memorial service will celebrate her life on Saturday November 17, 2012 at 1 p.m. at the Kailua 2nd Ward LDS Chapel at 349 Kailua Road. A viewing will be on Monday November 19 from 6-7 p.m at Hawaii Memorial Park Mortuary. Additional information is available and comments can be posted online at hawaiianmemorialparkmortuary.com. After graduating from James B. Castle High School and University of Hawaii, she worked as the office manager at Shingon Shu Hawaii on Sheridan Street, for the past 13 years, where she met many friends, whom she loved dearly as family, especially Reyn and Neal. Though her life was short, she was more than a wife, daughter, sister, aunty, cousin, relative, and friend, she was an inspiration and a ray of sunshine in countless people's lives. She brought smiles and hope to all whose lives she touched. She fought all of her life trying to beat her cardiac issues, always being as brave as she could, until passing away, at age 42, on October 13th, 2012. May her life continue to be an inspiration for all that she met throughout her time on this earth. Anytime you see a rainbow, a beautiful sunset, or a bright star in the sky, please think of her, as those were some of her most favorite things.
