Kanazawa, Gilbert J., Capt., U.S. Coast Guard (Ret.) passed away on March 3, 2010 in Houston, Texas. A long time resident of Kaneohe, Hawaii, Gilbert had been living in Houston since September, 2009, for treatment at the M.D. Anderson Cancer Center. Born in Chicago in 1953 to parents, the late Masaru ("Bud") Kanazawa and Teiko Kanazawa, Gilbert moved with his family to Greenville, Texas, in 1955. An Eagle Scout and honor student, he graduated from Greenville High School in 1972 and from the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, New London, Connecticut, in 1976. As the Commanding Officer of the Marine Safety Office, Honolulu and the Captain of the Port, CAPT Kanazawa was Officer in Charge of Marine Inspections and Federal On Scene Coordinator responsible for marine safety, port security, environmental protection and maritime homeland security covering 1.4 million square miles of the Central Pacific. Major accomplishments included: the eight month long $11 million removal project of hazardous materials from nine abandoned foreign longline fishing vessels in Pago Pago,

American Samoa; maritime preparations for the Y2K rollover; response to the grounded fishing vessel SWORDMAN 1 on Pearl and Hermes Reef; the first reflag of a foreign built cruise ship, M/S PATRIOT to U.S. Flag; participation in the Navy relocation and recovery of the EHIME MARU; direction of maritime homeland security after the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001; and the prevention of an environmental disaster on Johnston Atoll from the T/V INSIKO 1907 and recovery of the stranded dog Hok Get. Upon graduation from the Coast Guard Academy, Kanazawa had sea duty for two years aboard the USCGC HAMILTON on which his duties included anti-submarine warfare officer and weapons officer. He then began a career in the marine safety program at the Marine Inspection Office (MIO) in Houston, Texas, where he completed all qualifications as a marine inspector, investigating officer, vessel documentation assistant, and merchant mariner licensing and seaman documentation evaluator and examiner. In 1983 he was assigned as an overseas marine inspector at the Marine Safety Office (MSO) in Honolulu, Hawaii, where he conducted overseas merchant vessel inspections in Japan, Taiwan, Singapore, Guam, and American Samoa. He also served as the Chief of the Regional Examination Center. His next assignment was to the Fourteenth District Office in Honolulu as the Regional Response Team (RRT) Coordinator where he was instrumental in the rewrite and approval of the state's Dispersant Use Preapproval Plan and the development of the State of Hawaii's hazardous materials response program. In 1989, he was assigned as the Supervisor of the Coast Guard's largest Marine Safety Detachment (MSD) in Lake Charles, LA. As the only Coast Guard presence, he directed the MSD in search and rescue, law enforcement and maritime safety missions throughout Southwest Louisiana. An assignment as the Chief of the Marine Inspection Department at the MSO/Group in Portland, OR followed in 1992. During this assignment, Kanazawa was temporarily deployed to the staff of the Commander in Chief, Allied Forces Southern Europe at NATO Headquarters in Naples, Italy. He worked on staff as the Coast Guard Liaison Officer coordinating and directing Coast Guard assets assigned to the NATO task force for the enforcement of United Nations Security Council sanctions against the Former Republic of Yugoslavia. In 1995 he returned to the Eighth District as the Executive Officer of the MSO in New Orleans. He was instrumental in the direction of the unit's successful responses to major marine casualty and pollution incidents, including the collision between the foreign freight ships ENIF and ALEXIA, the crash of the M/V BRIGHT FIELD into New Orleans' Riverwalk Mall, Hurricanes Erin and Opal, and the record high water levels on the Mississippi River in 1997. In 1998 Kanazawa was assigned as the U.S. Coast Guard Advisor to the Panama Canal Commission in the Republic of Panama providing assistance in maritime safety, security, and environmental protection during the transition of the Canal back to Panama. Following his retirement in 2002 as Commanding Officer of the Marine Safety Office, Honolulu, CAPT Kanazawa served as a maritime security consultant to governments and private sector agencies globally. CAPT Kanazawa was the first Japanese-American to attain the rank of O-6 in the Coast Guard. His personal decorations include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Coast Guard Commendation Medal with 3 gold stars, the Coast Guard Achievement Medal, and the Commandant's Letter of Commendation ribbon, among others. CAPT Kanazawa was active in fundraising and volunteer services for various military and civic organizations including the Coast Guard Foundation. He was an avid golfer and sometime diving instructor. He was also a nationally registered Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) who volunteered countless hours performing emergency medical services with local ambulance companies. CAPT Kanazawa is survived by his mother, Teiko Kanazawa Murphy, and step-father, Carter Murphy, both of Dallas TX., a sister, Ellen Kanazawa, and her husband, Benjamin Miller, both of Lafayette, CO., two brothers, Lt. Col Tyle Kanazawa (USAF, ret.) of Tampa, FL and Jody Kanazawa of Rowlett, TX, a step-sister, Barbara Murphy, of Houston TX and a niece, Crystal Henderson, and her son, Blaise. Memorial services will be held on April 26 at 10:30am at the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific in Honolulu, Hawaii. There will be a reception at the Honolulu Coast Guard Base directly following the memorial service. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be directed to the Coast Guard Foundation, (www.coastguardfoundation.org or mail to 394 Taugwonk Rd., Stonington, CT 06378). The Coast Guard Foundation supports the men and women of the United States Coast Guard and its Academy with programs and projects that enhance the education, welfare and morale of all Coast Guard members and their families.
