Nishimura, Patsy, our mother, Patsy Sunako Nishimura, was born on January 8, 1934, in Honolua, Maui, the tenth of 12 children to Zengoro and Tamayo Yamaguchi. At the age of 9, her father passed away in an industrial accident and her family moved to Palolo, Oahu. We remember her stories of being an active member of the Kaimuki Class of 1953 and cheering on the Bulldogs in the old Honolulu Stadium. Mom later earned her practical nursing degree from the Hawaii Business College. She met our late father, Shigeru Nishimura, in the old Birch St. Coffee Shop. Married in 1954, together they raised four children, Guy (Kelly), Clint (Kelley), Judi (John) Morris, and Dr. Jan (Larry) Remillard. Our Mom has also been part of the lives of her loving grandchildren Jasmine, Ikaika 'o Ahuna, Waipa'okalani and Matthew Nishimura, John-John, Adam and Luke Morris, and LJ and Sunako Remillard. She's been affectionately known as "Lami", (pronounce Lammy) to friends of grandchildren, the neighborhood, her Kaiser Clinic patients, co-workers, everyone, the name given to her by eldest grandchild Jasmine. When Lami retired this past October, she broke the Kaiser Permanente - Hawaii record, 44 years of being employed there. She started at the old Ala Moana Hospital and later was part of the inaugural Kaiser Niu Valley, then Hawaii Kai Clinics medical staff as Kaiser's Pediatric Nurse. Our Mom passed away quietly on Friday, April 30th surrounded by her family. Please come celebrate Nurse Lami's life with her family, friends, co-workers, and the thousands of children and their families she touched over the years.
